

Q1. Bill C-389 was on the Order Paper awaiting second reading in the Senate when Parliament was dissolved. It would have explicitly added “gender identity” and “gender expression” to the the Canadian Human Rights Act as a prohibited ground of discrimination and transphobia to the Criminal Code as potential hate-based crime. Will you commit to supporting a bill similar to Bill C-389?

Yes

Q2. Do you agree that the current lifetime ban on blood donation by men who have sex with men is discriminatory and do you support changing this policy to reflect an individual donor’s behaviour and practices, such as recent testing, rather than be based on that individual being in a particular social group?

Yes

Q3. The ban on homosexuals serving in the Canadian Armed Forces was lifted in 1991. Do you favour reinstating the pensions of service members who were dishonourably discharged prior to the ban being lifted?

Yes

Q4. Do you support increased federal funding and initiatives for hate crimes prevention and anti-homophobia/transphobia education in schools, communities, workplaces and police services?

No. I believe we can achieve the prevention of such hate in our great society through education and everyday discourse and communication. Money will not solve the problems.

Q5. NSRAP favours amending legislation such as the Employment Insurance Compassionate Care Leave Benefit, Infirm Dependent Tax Credit, and Caregiver Tax Credit to include support provided by close friends, or "chosen families," rather than limiting them to spousal or biological relatives. Would you support legislation to create an LGBT-inclusive homecare tax credit?

Yes

Q6. Would you support reinstating the mandatory long-form census?

Yes

Q7. Do you support increased federal funding for LGBT awareness and sensitivity training for members of the Immigration and Refugee Board, and other border and asylum authorities?

No. It is possible to achieve this ideal without spending money.

Q8. Do you favour increased federal support for increased LGBT refugee protection in transit countries and countries of first asylum, and improve the reception and integration of LGBT refugees in Canada?

Yes

Q9. Have you spoken in the House of Commons or elsewhere or taken any other actions to support equality and justice for lesbian, gay, bisexual or trans people?

No

Q10. This year marks the 30th anniversary of the first diagnosed case of AIDS. Do you support making it easier to manufacture and export generic HIV/AIDS drugs?

Yes

Q11. Do you support federal funding for support of LGBT elders and history in Nova Scotia?

No. I believe we can achieve such success without money.

Q12. Do you support federal funding for LGBT economic development, and cultural industries and festivals, such as pride festivals in Nova Scotia?

No

Q13. Do you support the reinstatement of the Court Challenges Program, which was cancelled in 2006 and provided funding for groups and individuals seeking to advance their equality and language rights under the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms?

No. Money is what causes inequalities. It will not fix issues. Education, and hard work will.

Please provide any comments you have about particular questions or other issues relating to the LGBT community:
